

LRI Group announces two new partners for its UCITS Platform worth EUR 600m

Luxembourg, 10 April 2017 - LRI Group is pleased to announce that QC Partners GmbH and SK Vermögensverwaltung GmbH, both independent investment management companies headquartered in Germany, have migrated two funds to its UCITS Platform worth EUR 600 m.

Michael Sanders, Managing Director of LRI Invest S.A. said: "We are delighted that both managers have joined the LRI UCITS Platform and look forward to working together."

SK Vermögensverwaltung GmbH, headquartered in Karlsruhe, was founded in 1982. The owner-managed company currently manages with its 17-strong expert team more than two billion euros for private customers, family companies, non-profit organizations and institutional clients.

QC Partners GmbH is an independent, owner-managed company based in Frankfurt. As an investment boutique, they offer institutional investors innovative, valuable and risk-reducing additions to traditional equity and bond products. The responsible managers have a long-term marketing experience as well as a first-rate track record and are equally committed to both aspects of a successful investment - achieving return and active management of the associated risks. Great importance is attached to morally and ethically impeccable behavior following the ethical standards and principles of the CFA Institute.
